Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Hanover—Perhops.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a gallop; second handily; third driving hard. Lancer had speed to give away. He was in the worst going all the way. Caufield was outraced for the path. Irving could not make Service run. Dejure was the best in the going and showed it.

Winner—Blk. c. 3, by Fordham—Virginia A.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third ridden out. Roy Lochiel's performance will not do at all. He had speed for about three furlongs only. Sligo finished strong. Inspector Hunt ran another honest race. Forum likes the soft going. Roy Lochiel pulled up sound.

Scratched—Alvarado, 95.

3711 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g. 4, by Charaxus—Nina.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won rather handily after an early drive; second and third doing their best. Winslow was lucky in getting through on the path in the stretch. Frank Jaubert was jostled at the start. Cossack had an easy race. He will do better. Character ran a creditable race.

Scratched—Abuse, 110; Stowaway, 116.

THE WINSLOW STABLE'S GOOD DAY

The Winslow Stable people were very much in evidence at Ideal Park yesterday. They won two purses with Dejure and Winslow, and finished third with Sligo. All of the stable's horses are mud larks. Dejure was conceded a chance by form players, but Winslow wasn't, though he was backed from 5 to 2½ to 1.

Dejure's victory was over Caufield and Service and it was profitable to the ring. He went back a point or two in the betting owing to heavy plays on Caufield and Service. Soden got Dejure off well and outracing the others to the path, he won as he pleased.

How Roy Lochiel was beaten in his race was a mystery to everyone and still remains so. He seemed in a soft spot after showing so much speed Saturday. But Caywood could never get away from his field, and Roy finished a bad fourth, behind Forum, Inspector Hunt and Sligo.

Ben Falk won his first Ideal purse with Floreanna, who was backed from 6 to 5 off the boards. She had nothing to beat and simply galloped all the way.

Jockey H. Williams who has been riding for the Merry Glen Stable, came to grief on account of his excuse for a ride on Moscow. The colt broke with the bunch, but was immediately snatched up and was never a contender. The colt was pumped and badly cut at the post and the boy offers this as an excuse.

RACING GOSSIP.

In what booking they do on the Jockey Club tracks Western operators fare well. There is plenty of money for all. At Sheephead Bay as many as ninety bookmakers were at work. John Fay, a sharp figure in the turf's speculative corner, has recently sampled the Metropolitan betting game, and says of it: "All the speculators are doing well. They should. I never saw such 'strong' books. Their percentages will eat you up, if you stay with them long enough. Even Riley Grannan screamed and threatened to quit betting. Ike Thompson is the 'whale' of the betting sea. He'll take nearly any kind of a bet. The tracks are profiting this year. The daily attendance averages between 2,500 and 3,000.

The San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman makes the following table of figures to show the amount of money brought into circulation in San Francisco in consequence of six months' racing in that vicinity:

Wages of 750 men and boys.....	$124,500
Board of 750 men and boys.....	101,250
Paid for hay (1,000 horses).....	80,400
" " straw " ".....	54,000
" " grain " ".....	89,000
" " plating " ".....	24,000
" horse boots and veterinarians' services.....	12,000
Keeping track in order, $20 a day.....	3,120
Purses and stakes, average $2,800 pr day.....	439,800
Salaries of judges, $100 per day, 26 days per month.....	15,800
Salaries of secretary, clerk of scales, &c., $40 per day.....	6,240
Salaries of starter and assistant, $30 per day.....	4,680
Salaries of 12 track detectives, $3 per day, average.....	5,616
Car fare of all kinds, 2,000 at 35 cts. per day each.....	97,200
Salaries of bookmakers' clerks, $10 per day, average of 14 books.....	75,360
Advertising of associations, $40 per day.....	6,240

Total amount circulated.....$1,126,406

These figures are far too low. They do not take in the disbursement of visitors, professional and amateur, or bookmakers and their crews. These disbursements are far above the average. The visitor spends his winnings gaily and retrenches to a cash basis when a loser. The turf's people, horsemen, professional bettors, bookmakers and their clerks are noble spenders. The item covering these counts to hotels, restaurants, tailors, dry goods people, etc., would, could it be calculated, far exceed all items in the above list outside that of track gifts. It would crowd that. A moderate estimate is $400,000. I declared a year ago that the local racing culture cost Chicago millions. The declarations can be proven by inquiries among the leading railroad, hotels, restaurants, saloons, theatres, millinery, dressmaking, dry goods, grocery, haberdashery and clothing houses of Chicago. Racing seasons such as Chicago had in 1893 and 1894 are worth $12,000,000 per annum to the business men of the western metropolis.
